WHO ARE WE?

REGION DENTS DU MIDI SA (RDDM)

Region Dents du Midi SA is an independent tourism services and destination management company, oriented towards meeting the needs and expectations of our partners and clients in efficient and innovative ways. Mandated by the Illiez Valley municipalities (Champéry, Troistorrents, and Val-d'Illiez) and key local stakeholders, RDDM SA operates within the destination, but also promotes the region nationally and internationally, creating added value for the local economy.

Establishing Region Dents du Midi as a tourist destination serves two main goals. First, it aligns with the Canton of Valais' strategy to modernise regional tourism operations. Second, it underlines our conviction that a collaborative effort is the optimal approach for tourism in the Illiez Valley.

REGION DENTS DU MIDI SA MISSIONS

- ▶ Spearhead and coordinate tourist information and hospitality in the valley.
- ▶ Ensure the communication, promotion, and sales of tourist products throughout the valley.
- ▶ Create and manage a website and online booking platform (accommodations, products, and services).
- ▶ Foster an environment that encourages continuous improvement of the quality of our services.
- ▶ Guarantee an attractive entertainment schedule and support the organisation of major events.

OUR 6 RESORT VILLAGES

Region Dents du Midi is made up of 6 charming villages perched high in the Swiss Alps. Nestled along the spectacular Illiez Valley, these villages form the Swiss half of Les Portes du Soleil, the world's largest international ski area.

This vast, natural playground covers some 600 km of sublime ski slopes, wooded glades, and enchanting fir forests. No matter the season, this is a place of long-cherished traditions, authentic terroir, exhilarating peaks, and inspiring views, where the border between France and Switzerland has all but disappeared and your backyard stretches as far as the eye can see.

Champoussin (1,580 m)

68 Val-d'Illiens & Val-d'Illiennes * live here

Champoussin is a peaceful village, cradled in a sweeping arc of alpine peaks with an awe-inspiring view over the Dents du Midi. The south-facing hillsides trap the sunshine while wide boulevards with gently rolling slopes provide the perfect topography for beginner skiers and families.

Les Crosets (1,600 m)

87 Val-d'Illiens & Val-d'Illiennes * live here

A bustling hotspot on the Swiss side of the Portes du Soleil and a hub for direct connections to the other resorts, Les Crosets is the ideal jumping-off point for ski-in ski-out holidays. When the lifts on your doorstep whirr into action, you'll be the first to hit the slopes!

Champéry (1,050 m)

1,400 Champérolains & Champérolaines live here

One of the oldest tourist destinations in Switzerland, Champéry is also the first Olympic village in Valais, having hosted the curling events for the Youth Olympic Games in January 2020. Quaint, yet resolutely modern, the picturesque main street still has all the authentic charm of yesteryear while the village's iconic red-and-white cable car is a model of Swiss efficiency, whisking you away to an altitude of 2,000 m and into the vast Portes du Soleil in under 5 minutes!

Troistorrents (770 m)

4,214 Chorgues live here

The gateway to the Illiez Valley, Troistorrents covers a territory of more than 37 km² and includes several small hamlets. A testimony to our rich architectural heritage, the village is dominated by the stately Church of Saint Mary Magdalene, which overlooks a mighty stone bridge and an ancient mill—dating from 1401—built into the harrowing river gorge below.

Morgins (1,330 m)

861 Morginois & Morginoises  live here

The last stop on the road to France and the doorstep to the Val d'Abondance, Morgins is a vital link between the Swiss and French territories of the Portes du Soleil. Home to long, scenic ski runs through fir forests and the Rando Parc, our official ski touring training ground, Morgins offers a relaxed snowsports vibe in ruggedly alpine surroundings.

Val-d'Illiez (950 m)

2,002 Val-d'Illiens & Val-d'Illiennes * live here

Nestled in the heart of the valley that shares its name, Val-d'Illiez has long been a stronghold of agrarian tradition. In the village square, two ancient granaries—now transformed into a tiny museum—offer a glimpse into the past of this close-knit community. Just across the road, the church's graceful bell tower rises proudly under the watchful gaze of the Dents du Midi.

* Les Crosets and Champoussin are hamlets within the municipality of Val-d'Illiez.

Morgins is part of the municipality of Troistorrents.

LES DENTS DU MIDI

All 7 vertiginous summits of this alpine massif are over 3,000 metres high. Dominated by the Haute Cime (3,257 m), they are our ever-present guardians and have been an iconic local landmark since time immemorial.

In 2018, they inspired a stylised new logo, thus becoming the symbol of the newly formed Region Dents du Midi tourist destination.

One of the oldest hiking tours in the Canton of Valais, the Tour des Dents du Midi was inaugurated in 1972. Adventurous nature lovers can circumnavigate the iconic mountain range in two, three, or four days, enjoying the stark contrasts in landscape between the glacial peaks and the verdant alpine meadows.

A veritable paradise on earth, the Dents du Midi's shady forests, steep rocky mountainsides, rivers, lakes, and glaciers are home to countless species of flora and fauna. Keep a watchful eye for chamois, ibex, marmots, and ptarmigans. And if you're lucky, you might even spot a rare Bearded Vulture or its 'bald' cousin, the Griffon Vulture.

ARRIVALS & DEPARTURES

Most Swiss municipalities require you to visit their administrative offices in person to announce your departure or arrival. You must do this and complete the administrative procedures within the official 14-day deadline.

Residence Permit for Non-European Union Members

> Employment of people from non-EU countries is only allowed in exceptional circumstances. The rule is that the employee must present a unique profile for a job that cannot be filled by a person from Switzerland or from one of EU and EFTA (European Free Trade Association) member countries.

Residence Permit for European Union Members

> Anyone wishing to apply for a residence permit must contact the municipal administration 14 days before starting employment.

Valais4you.ch

> Your one-stop guide for settling in and making the most of life in Valais. This platform walks you through all the official procedures—residency permits, registering with your local municipality, health insurance, taxes, and other must-do paperwork. You'll also find practical info on housing, jobs, education, and everyday life.

MONEY, MONEY, MONEY

The official currency in Switzerland is the Swiss Franc (CHF), but you'll find that many places happily accept Euros too. Considered a 'safe' currency, the Franc is highly sought after, especially in times of financial fluctuation or crisis. The strength and dependability of the Swiss Franc reflects Switzerland's thriving economy and stable political and economic scene.

MOBILITY & ACCESS

GETTING HERE

By car

The Illiez Valley is just 20 minutes from the St-Triphon exit off the A9 motorway. A direct link to the major European motorway axes and an important part of the Swiss national motorway network, the A9 serves western Switzerland from Vallorbe to Brigue, passing by Lausanne, Montreux, and Sion.

By train

The emblematic Swiss Federal Railways (CFF/SBB) provide fast, efficient connections from Geneva and Sion airports and major European cities via Lausanne or Brigue to the nearby town of Aigle. From Aigle, transfer to the AOMC cogwheel train (Aigle – Ollon – Monthey – Champéry) for a scenic trip from the Canton of Vaud over the Rhone River and into the Canton of Valais. Just past the town of Monthey, the cogwheel slides into gear and you begin the winding climb up into the Val d'Illiez.

If you want to use the Swiss highway network, your car must display a special sticker, called a vignette. This applies to both motor vehicles and trailers (those not subject to the heavy goods vehicle fee). The vignette costs CHF 40 and is valid from December 1st, 2025, to January 31st, 2027 (available starting December 1st at customs and post offices, gas stations, garages, and select retail stores). Starting December 1st, 2023, you can also purchase a virtual vignette online at e-vignette.ch.

WASTE MANAGEMENT

TAXED BIN BAGS

To comply with current federal waste management legislation, the Valais Romand introduced the pay-per-bag tax on January 1st, 2018. Since then, official taxed bin bags are the only bags permitted for household waste. This system ensures that everyone pays according to the amount of waste they generate. Mandated in 1996 through a revision of the Federal Law on Environmental Protection, the 'polluter-pays' principle has gradually been implemented across all Swiss cantons.

ECOPOINTS & RECYCLING

You can drop your household bin bags at waste collection points in our villages called eco-points. You can also recycle glass, aluminium, PET (plastic bottles), paper, batteries, and food waste.

FOOD WASTE

The valley municipalities are part of the 'Gastro-Vert©' food waste collection network. To participate, you must request an access card from your municipal administration. This card allows you to open the special brown bins and drop off your compostable bags of food waste.

WASTE COLLECTION CENTRES

Residents and second-home owners (taxpayers) are allowed to deposit materials at their municipal waste disposal centre. This includes bulky items that don't belong with household waste in the eco-points.

The TAR, advance fee for recycling funding.

Today, when we purchase most electronic devices, we all pay an advance recycling fee (TAR). This allows us to return it to the place of purchase once the item reaches the end of its life. This ensures proper recycling procedures (dismantling, material sorting, recycling, etc.).

REGIONAL CULINARY SPECIALITIES

★ LA SALÉE DE LA VALLÉE ★

There's nothing 'salty' about this moreish cinnamon pie...

Ingredients (for 5 people):

Pastry base:

- 300 g flour
- 140 g softened butter
- 30 g sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt (5 g)
- 1 lemon zest
- 1 egg
- 1 dl warm milk
- 10 g baker's yeast

Preparation of pastry base:

Sift the flour into a bowl, create a well, then pour in a mixture of the yeast and a little lukewarm milk. Add the remaining lukewarm milk, the egg, sugar, softened butter, salt, and lemon zest. Mix until combined. Knead the dough until it becomes smooth and elastic, then place it in a lightly oiled bowl. Cover with a damp cloth and let it rise at room temperature for 2 hours. The dough should double in volume.

Sugar crumble topping:

Mix the flour, sugar, and cinnamon. Add the cubed butter and crumble the mixture.

Sugar crumble topping:

- 250 g flour
- 150 g sugar
- 15 g ground cinnamon
- 100 g butter, cut into cubes

Garniture :

- 150 g de cold butter in slices

Assembling the pie:

Roll out the dough and place it in a tart pan. Trim excess dough with a rolling pin and prick the bottom of the tart with a fork. Spread the sugar crumble mixture over the dough, pressing the edges well, and levelling the surface. Cover with sliced butter and bake for 45 minutes at 180°C. After 30 minutes of baking, sprinkle the pie with Fendant and return to the oven. Allow to cool slightly and serve warm or cold.

★ L'ASSIETTE VALAISANNE ★

Ingredients:

- Viande séchée (Swiss dry cured beef)
- Jambon cru (Swiss dry cured ham, or Prosciutto)
- Lard sec (dry cured bacon)
- Sliced dried sausage
- Valais rye bread
- Raclette cheese

Preparation:

Thinly slice the cured meats & cut the sausage into rounds. Cut the cheese into wedges. Arrange the ingredients on a plate or platter and garnish with little pickles and cocktail onions. Serve with rye bread and fresh butter on the side.

★ SOUPE AU PLAT ★

Ingredients (for 6 – 8 people):

- 500 g chopped onions
- 2 l beef bouillon
- 8-12 slices of day-old bread
- 350 g of hard Valais cheese, grated
- Salt & pepper
- Thyme (optional)
- 1 bay leaf (optional)

Preparation:

Heat the oven to 180-200 °C.

In a large pot or oven-proof casserole dish, sauté the onions in the butter, without browning the onions. When they become translucent, remove 2/3.

Add a layer of bread on top of the remaining onions, then a layer of cheese. Arrange and alternate layers of onions, bread, and cheese until you've used up all the ingredients, finishing with a layer of cheese. Save a bit of cheese for gratinating the soup.

Pour the hot beef broth over the layers in the pot, pressing down with a skimmer to saturate all the layers. Add the thyme and the bay leaf, salt and pepper to taste. Cover the pot and bake the soup in the oven for 20-30 minutes.

Remove the lid, add the remaining cheese and gratinate the whole dish for 10-15 minutes. Serve immediately, with a dollop of whipped cream.

★ FONDUE AU FROMAGE ★

Ingredients (for 4 people):

- 1 clove garlic
- 3.5 dl dry white wine
- 800 g locally produced fondue cheese mix
- 600 à 800 g 'mi-blanc' bread (bread made with a mix of white and whole wheat flour) cut into 2-3 cm bite-sized cubes
- Kirsch (optional), pepper

Preparation:

Crush the garlic clove and rub it around the inside of the fondue pot

Add the cheese and wine, and heat on low, stirring constantly. Once the cheese has melted, add the Kirsch (optional) and pepper to taste.

When the mix is nearly boiling and creamy, light the flame in the stand and set the fondue pot on top. Stab a bread chunk with your fondue fork and give it a good stir in the fondue, to fully coat each piece of bread and to keep the fondue from burning.

★ CROÛTE AU FROMAGE ★

The quintessential Swiss cheese on toast...

Ingredients (for 4 people):

- 4 slices mi-blanc bread
- 8 slices cooked ham
- 600 g Raclette cheese
- 1 dl white wine (Fendant du Valais)
- Pepper, sweet paprika

Preparation:

Cut the bread into 8 slices. Using 4 ovenproof plates, place 2 slices of bread on each and drizzle with a little wine.

Arrange the ham slices on top. Cut the cheese into 12 slices and layer them on the bread.

Season with pepper and paprika to taste. Bake in an oven preheated to 220 °C for about 10 minutes until crusty and bubbling.

★ LA RACLETTE ★

Ingredients (for 8 people):

- ½ wheel of PDO Raclette du Valais (about 2.4 - 2.5 kg)
- 1.6 kg Raclette potatoes
- Little pickles
- Cocktail onions

Preparation:

Place the half-wheel of Raclette in the Raclette grill. Keep the cheese at least 6 centimetres underneath the heating element.

When the surface of the cheese melts, tilt the cheese away from you and scrape the melted layer onto a pre-heated plate with a knife. Serve with one potato and garnish with pickles and onions.

WELCOMING CLIENTS WITH A SMILE

THE ART OF MAKING CUSTOMERS FEEL AT HOME

First impressions play a crucial role in whether a customer chooses to return to a destination. The way you greet your client will set the tone for their whole visit and keep them coming back year after year. Overall, it's a key factor in building a loyal customer base and driving business growth.

HANDLING COMPLAINTS WITH CARE

Why do customers complain? The obvious answer is that customers complain for an objective reason—like bad service, or a substandard product. But often a complaint is rooted in something deeper and more subjective—they want to be heard. The complaint might ostensibly be about slow service, cold food, a lost reservation. But whatever the problem, whether it seems trivial or justified, your client wants to feel that their opinion matters, that they matter.

From the offhand remark to the infuriated client, you must be able to identify a problem and find a solution. In the age of social media, a customer is much more likely to leave a negative comment than a positive one, so it's a good rule of thumb to never let a dissatisfied customer leave without at least listening to the complaint and offering a solution.

This means you need to be a problem-solver, but more importantly, you need to address your client's desire to be heard with care and tact.

Practice active listening

Try to see the client's point of view

Choose your words carefully

WHY DO CUSTOMERS COMPLAIN?

- › It is important to try to understand why a customer complains.
- › Every customer has their own unique reason for complaining.
- › Understanding the specific reason for each complaint is crucial for effective resolution.

Objective Reasons

- › Substandard product
- › Inadequate service

Subjective Reasons

- › Because their expectations are not met,
- › Because venting feels good,
- › Because the squeaky wheel gets the oil.

HOW TO FIX THINGS FAST

- › Attend to one customer at a time, finding a private area to talk with the unhappy client.
- › Clear your mind of personal emotions and opinions that hinder your receptiveness to the customer.
- › Be sincere – the customer is and you should be too.
- › Give the customer time to express themselves—don't interrupt.
- › Practice active listening—confirm you understand the problem by restating what the customer says.
- › Pay attention—maintain eye contact with the customer.
- › Express your sincere regret for the customer's negative experience in clear, straightforward terms.

WHAT THE CLIENT REALLY WANTS

- › To be heard, and have their feelings taken seriously,
- › To be treated with respect,
- › For the responsible party to acknowledge their fault and be held accountable,
- › Resolution—to know that the issue will not happen again,
- › To see you taking immediate action,
- › Compensation or redress for the inconvenience.

WHAT NOT TO DO

- › Don't ignore the customer.
- › Don't make promises you can't keep.
- › Don't allow yourself to be distracted while the customer is talking.
- › Don't tell the customer they have no right to be upset.
- › Don't question the customer's integrity.
- › Don't argue with the customer.
- › Don't be indifferent or rude.
- › Don't be sarcastic or arrogant.
- › Don't use inappropriate language.
- › Don't let your body language or posture convey an unprofessional attitude.

TURNING LEMONS INTO LEMONADE

- › A complaint allows you to evaluate your level of service,
- › To identify your weaknesses,
- › To evaluate your offer from a client's point of view,
- › To increase customer satisfaction,
- › To increase customer loyalty—the customer who sees a problem effectively resolved is more likely to have a positive impression than a customer who never experienced any problems.

IS THE CUSTOMER ALWAYS RIGHT?

Meeting the expectations of every customer is a challenging endeavour. While the customer may not always be right, it's important to take their concerns to heart.

EVEN MINOR COMPLAINTS CAN SNOWBALL INTO A CRISIS IF YOU DON'T TAKE THEM SERIOUSLY!

HANDLING COMPLAINTS LIKE A PRO

Be a problem-solver

Many unhappy clients go away angry and never come back. Now that you have a client who has taken the time to complain, this is your chance to change that dynamic and create a positive outcome. Here's how...

- › If you have a very upset client, the first thing to do is to find a quiet place to sit down and talk privately. Then, let them have their say, while you demonstrate active listening by rephrasing some of their concerns.
- › Don't hesitate to ask questions to understand all the details of the conflict; this will help you find a better solution.
- › Next, offer your sincere apologies for their inconvenience. You represent the company, so it's not a personal apology but one from the company.
- › Propose multiple solutions and let the client choose which option suits them. Be careful not to make any promises you can't keep!
- › Implement an action plan—tell the client exactly how you're going to follow through.
- › Follow up on the situation. Once the issue is corrected, check back to make sure everything is okay.

Try these solutions

- › Overbooking: suggest a complimentary coffee or drink and ask the client to be patient while you reserve a room in an equivalent establishment (with any additional costs covered by you).
- › Table reservation error: offer an equivalent alternative with a gesture of goodwill.
- › Slow service: suggest making up for lost time during the rest of the service with extra attention.
- › A mistaken order or an error concerning hygiene, presentation, freshness, or cooking: offer to replace the dish immediately.
- › Cold food: Offer to reheat the food without altering the quality. Otherwise, replace immediately.
- › Corked wine: Replace the wine or offer a glass of a good-quality alternative.
- › Equipment quality: With your superior's approval, offer a discount on the rental amount.

In all cases, a gesture of goodwill can have a huge impact. A free coffee, a drink on the house, or a small discount won't break your budget, but it will make all the difference to customer satisfaction.

A well-handled complaint makes for a great story—people just love to tell their friends about something that went wrong and how they got you to fix it! By handling a complaint well, you can promote your business and increase customer loyalty.

My meat isn't cooked enough!

Don't you know that lamb is supposed to be pink?

Don't shame your customer

This attitude will only make the situations worse. Most customers don't want to complain and many choose to suffer in silence. Don't make them feel bad for voicing their concern.

The lift passes are way too expensive!

Well, this is one of the cheapest ski areas in Switzerland, in terms of value for price.

Don't argue with your customer

It doesn't matter who is right—the goal is to find a solution.

My skis aren't waxed right.

Oh, that's my colleague's fault. He's not really a ski technician.

Don't shift the blame

This doesn't solve the customer's problem and you make your company look bad to boot.

This ski lesson really didn't help me at all.

Well it's too late now and I have to leave for another lesson.

Don't be flippant or indifferent

An 'I don't care' attitude will only make things worse.

This hotel has the worst service!

Well, I've been in the business for 10 years, I think I know what I'm doing.

Don't be defensive

The customer's complaint isn't targeted at you specifically, so don't take it personally.

VALAISAN EXPRESSIONS

Here are a few colourful expressions commonly used in our region:

★ T’as où les vignes ?

Valaisans not living in the mountains might ask “Where are your vines?” Since winegrowing is an historic and economically important activity in Valais, this expression allows two Valaisans to situate each other geographically—and dynastically.

★ T’as où les vaches ?

“Where do you keep your cows?”
The alpine version of ‘T’as où les vignes’.

★ T’es le fils à qui ?

Literally, “Whose son are you” or figuratively, “Which family do you belong to”. In small villages with large families that often have several branches, it helps to know which branch of a particular family a person belongs to. This might be a follow-up question to “T’as où les vaches”.

★ T’cheu l’équipe ici ! On boit une ou bien ?

“Hey, the gang’s all here! Are we having a drink or what?”

★ Regarde-voir aller suici (celui-ci) !

This expression, adopted from our French neighbours, has 3 verbs in a row. Literally “Looky see what that person is doing!”

★ Un ballon

Not a ball, but a unit of measurement for 1 decilitre of wine. “T’en mets deux”, or “Give me two”, is commonly used to order 2 decilitres of wine.

★ On part en piste ou quoi ?

Careful! This is the prelude to an epic night of partying! Hydrate accordingly...

★ Je te fous une gifle avec une pelle à neige !

Imma slap you with a snow shovel! No explanation needed.

★ En bas... / En haut...

We often refer to a place in terms of altitude, relative to where we live. So a resident of Val-d’Illiez might say “Down in Monthey” and “Up in Morgins”, and also “Up in Sion”, which is at a lower altitude, but further ‘up’ the Rhone and the Valais.

★ ..., ou quoi ? / ..., ou bien ?

90% of Valaisan sentences end with this rhetorical uptick that basically means, “Dontcha think?”

★ Tu vois comment ?

A rhetorical “See what I mean?”

★ Ça va le chalet ou bien ?

Expression used by Valaisans living in the mountains to say, “Are you nuts?”

★ En haut dessus, en bas dessous

Contrary to what one might think, this pleonastic expression is not at all equivalent to ‘up above’ or ‘down below’. Indeed, the expression ‘en haut dessus’ means ‘on the upper floor’ and similarly, ‘en bas dessous’ means ‘on the lower floor’.

★ Beau pays, mais sec !

“Pretty country, but dry!” A guest would use this expression to indicate to their host that their wine glass is empty, or worse, that they are still waiting to be served!

★ Une heure de temps

We Valaisans aren’t afraid of a pleonasm. This common expression means “An hour of time”.

★ Eh mais la cramine / Eh mais la tchaffe

It’s freezing! / It’s so hot! (La tchaffe can also mean mud or sloppy melty snow.)

★ Ença / Enlà ?

Over here / over there

★ Suici doit pas avoir la lumière à tous les étages.

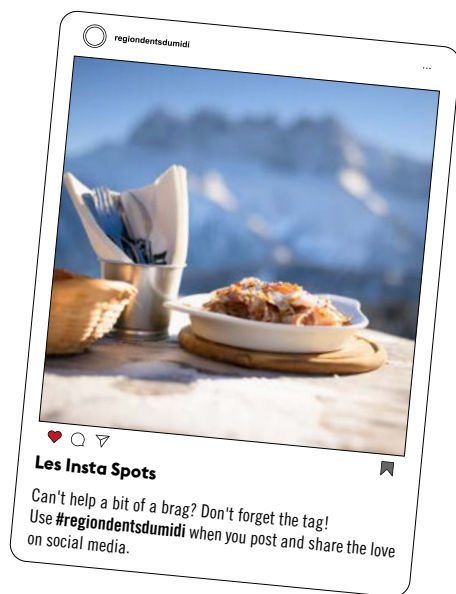

The person whose “lights aren’t on on every floor”, is not the sharpest knife in the drawer...

★ Tcho bonne !

Rooted most likely in the Italian ‘ciao’, this simple, efficient salutation says it all—Best regards, take care, see you soon in good health!
