

The background of the poster is a dark, atmospheric night scene. In the foreground, a large, glowing jack-o'-lantern with a classic triangular face and a jagged mouth is positioned on the left. Behind it, a large, dark, curved structure, possibly a slide or a tunnel, winds through the scene. In the background, a full moon hangs in a dark blue sky, with a few silhouettes of birds in flight. A string of warm, glowing lights is strung across the middle ground. On the right, a small silhouette of a witch in a long dress and pointed hat is visible. The overall mood is spooky and festive.
